

Media Release: November 3, 2011

North Quabbin Films presents "The Guns of Navarone" to commemorate Veterans Day, Friday, November 11, 2011.

The film is free and will be shown at the Athol Town Hall, 584 Main Street Athol, MA at 7 pm.

You are invited to join together to reflect and honor Veterans Day and view together "The Guns of Navarone" .

The Guns of Navarone is a 1961 British-American war film based on the 1957 novel of the same name about the Dodecanese Campaign of World War II by Scottish thriller writer Alistair MacLean. It stars Gregory Peck, David Niven and Anthony Quinn, along with Anthony Quayle and Stanley Baker. The book and the film share the same basic plot: the efforts of an Allied commando team to destroy a seemingly impregnable German fortress that threatens Allied naval ships in the Aegean Sea, and prevents 2,000 isolated British troops from being rescued.

North Quabbin Films founding sponsors: Mission Covenant Church of Orange, Second Franklin State Representative Denise Andrews's Office, Millers River Café of Orange, and Art for Life of Orange believe community gatherings and access to the arts will enhance our vibrant communities.

If you are interested in volunteering to work on the NQ Films Team or in becoming a NQ Films Supporting Member for a $10-$20 donation or a NQ Sponsor to help underwrite this initiative please contact Jeanie at the Millers River Café at 978.633.4433.

Visit and friend North Quabbin Films on facebook to stay connected on film updates and activities.

The last film of the 2011 NQ Film Series will be the Lion King on December 9 at the new Erving Senior Center.

Hope to see you at Veterans Day!